

Appendix B: Conferences

- 2022/8 Participant, DOHaD World Congress 2022, Conference
- 2022/8 Panelist, DOHaD World Congress 2022 Indigenous Community in DOHaD Research, Conference
Alexandra was a co-research panelist at the DOHaD World Congress in Vancouver BC on August 28, 2022
- 2022/7 Presenter, Urgent Indigenous Perinatal Health Forum
Authors of the Call-to-Action paper (including A. King) were invited to join and share the invitation to an interactive forum to provide an opportunity to network and connect with others around the world involved in research activism that seeks to urgently improve Indigenous maternal and infant health and wellbeing.
- 2022/7 Attendee, Pacific Region Indigenous Doctors Congress, Conference
July 10th-15th, 2022
- 2022/7 Moderator, AIDS 2022, the 24th international AIDS Conference, Conference
Alexandra was invited to be a moderator for the 24th international AIDS conference from July 29, 2022- August 2, 2022. The moderated session was titled, "No substitute for experience: Highlighting grassroots approaches to HIV"
- 2022/7 Presenter, Pacific Region Indigenous Doctors Congress (PRIDoC) 2022, Workshop
Dr. Alexandra King presented the abstract 'Call to Action: Indigenous maternal health in high-income countries with a group of colleagues at the PRIDoC workshop
- 2022/6 Presenter, World Indigenous Peoples' Conference on Viral Hepatitis, Conference, June 22-23, 2022 from Saskatoon/Virtual
- 2022/5 Co-Chair, 11th Canadian Symposium on Hepatitis C virus (CSHCV), Seminar
Alexandra King was invited to co-chair the Population Health Research session at the 11th Canadian Symposium on Hepatitis C virus (CSHCV) hosted on May 13, 2022 in Ottawa.
- 2022/5 Attendee, Supporting the Advancement of Indigenous Data Sovereignty in Social Sciences Research Workshop 2022, Workshop
Alexandra attended the Supporting the Advancement of Indigenous Data Sovereignty in Social Sciences Research Workshop- a hybrid event taking place at Ryerson University on May 6, 2022
- 2022/5 Moderator, Canadian Liver Meeting 2022, Conference
Alexandra King was invited to co-moderate a session as part of the CanHepC Symposium at the 5th Annual Canadian Liver Meeting in Ottawa, ON on May 13-15, 2022 Session Topic: CanHepC Track- Session 2, Population Health Research- Rising to the Challenge
- 2022/4 Attendee, Annual Canadian Conference on HIV/AIDS Research, Conference
Alexandra King holds a place on the CAHR Board as the treasurer- alongside attending the conference presentations she took part in numerous events throughout the CAHR Conference such as: The President's Reception CAHR Board of Director's Dinner Meeting, CAHR Opening Ceremonies Welcome Reception, CAHR Annual General Meeting, CAHR Closing Ceremonies

- 2022/4 Attendee, The Canadian Conference on HIV/AIDS Research (CAHR) 2022, Conference
The 31st Canadian Conference on HIV/AIDS Research (CAHR Conference) was held April 28th to May 1st, 2022 in London, Ontario
- 2022/4 Panelist, Annual Canadian Conference on HIV/AIDS Research (CAHR Conference) April 27-29, 2022, Conference
Alexandra King was invited as a panelist for the Launch of the CIHR HIV/AIDS and STBBI Research Initiative Strategic Plan
- 2022/2 Attendee, An Overview of Contraceptive Options for Care Providers, Seminar
Alexandra King attended a webinar for healthcare providers that provided an overview and information on contraceptive options in a Saskatchewan-specific context
- 2022/1 Attendee, Indigenous Research Ethics in a Digital World, Seminar
Alexandra attended a webinar titled: Community Issues and Innovations in Indigenous Data Governance hosted by Trent University on January 18th, 2022
- 2021/12 Presenter, Ottawa Hepatitis C Leadership Meeting, Conference
Alexandra King presented the National Blue Print and Road Maps; Regional Plans at the Ottawa Hepatitis C Leadership Meeting in Ottawa ON, on December 3, 2021
- 2021/11 Moderator, Sask Stories Provincial Conference on HIV/Hepatitis C Wise and Promising Practices, Conference
Served as a moderator for multiple sessions and presentations throughout the two-day conference that was held on November 25th and 26th, 2022.
- 2021/11 Chair and Presenter, World Indigenous Peoples' Conference on Viral Hepatitis Mini Conference, Conference
The mini conference featured international Indigenous speakers and allies addressing how to refocus on hepatitis testing, treatment and prevention, as well as lessons learned from COVID-19. Indigenous ceremony and culture were woven into the event.
- 2021/10 Presenter, Canadian Cardiovascular Congress 2021, Conference
Keynote Speaker Title: Perceived and unperceived barriers to cv care for Indigenous Persons in Canada <https://www.eventscribe.net/2021/CardioCongress/agenda.asp?pfp=FullSchedule>
- 2021/9 Panelist, Canadian Agency for Drugs and Technologies in Health: National Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action: Opportunities and Challenges for Health Care, Seminar
- 2021/9 Panelist, CADTH- National Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action: Opportunities and Challenges for Health Care, Seminar
Helping to mark Canada's inaugural National Day of Truth and Reconciliation, CADTH is honoured to be joined by a prestigious group who are leaders in healthcare, research, academic, and Indigenous realms. With them, we will commemorate the tragic history of the residential schools. Through a fireside chat format, participants will reflect and contemplate on the challenges and opportunities of implementing the Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action in connection to health care
- 2021/6 Panelist, Picture a Scientist- Documentary Viewing and Panel Discussion, Seminar
Dr. Alexandra King spoke on a panel following the viewing of the documentary titled

Picture a Scientist to discuss the issues of gender bias raised and profiled in the documentary.

- 2021/6 Panelist, BC Substance Use Conference. The 2021 conference theme is: Bridging The Gap: Connecting harm reduction, treatment and recovery, Conference
Dr. Alexandra King was a panelist where they discussed the following learning objectives: Recognize intergenerational trauma from past and ongoing colonial violence, anti-Indigenous racism, and substance use as a response to these experiences. Recognize how persisting inequities have been and continue to be created through policies that fall short of addressing anti-Indigenous racism and how inequities are worsened in times of crisis such as the dual public health emergencies. Discuss strategies to bring Indigenous wellness and harm reduction together. Create culturally safe, Indigenous-led, collaborative services and supports that promote wellness. Use person-centred and strengths-based approaches to support Indigenous people on their journeys to wellness. Appreciate each person's journey and how to support their wellness, starting with where they are at.
- 2021/5 Clinical Co-Chair, Annual Canadian Conference on HIV/AIDS Research (CAHR), Conference <https://www.cahr-acrv.ca/conference/>
- 2021/5 Panelist, Virtual Harm Reduction Forum: THINKING BEYOND THE CRISIS, Workshop
Alexandra's was a panelist discussing HARM: what is it and what can we do about it?
- 2021/5 Moderator, Canadian Liver Meeting 2021, Conference
- 2021/3 Panelist, Health Innovation and Public Policy Conference, Seminar
- 2019/9 Participant, INHSU 2019 8th International Conference on Hepatitis Care in Substance Users 2019, Conference
- 2019/5 Participant, McMaster's enhancing the delivery of comprehensive care for people living with HIV in Canada, Club
- 2019/5 Participant, McMaster's enhancing the delivery of comprehensive care for people living with HIV in Canada, Association
- 2018/12 Participant, Current Best Practices in Chronic Disease Prevention, Self- Management and Care: How Does this Translate into a Community Based Model?, Conference
- 2018/11 Participant, American association for the study of liver disease, Conference
- 2018/10 Participant, HBV reactivation in patients receiving HCV DAA therapy, Workshop
- 2018/9 Participant, INHSU: 7th international symposium on hepatitis care in substance users, Workshop
- 2018/9 Participant, Inspired by Possibilities: Transforming the HCV care cascade for people who use drugs, Conference
- 2018/3 Participant, co-Principal Investigator, Community engagement - Health Centres, Workshop
DRUM - community visits Multiple city tour